Validatory Report of the Department of Zoology on the Certificate Course "Mammalogy and Wildlife Conservation" from 15-01-2022 to 01-03-2022 for the Academic Year 2021-22

The Department of Zoology conducted a Certificate Course on "Mammalogy and Wildlife Conservation" from 15-01-2022 to 01-03-2022. The course aimed to provide an overview of the diversity, structure, function, and evolution of animals. The course had a total of 172 students enrolled, and all the students attended the classes regularly and actively participated in the learning activities. All the enrolled students appeared for the examination and passed with satisfactory marks.

The valedictory function of the course was held on 01-03-2022 in the seminar hall. The function was attended by the principal, the head of the department, staff, and the students of the Zoology department, who were invited as guests. The function continued with the speeches by the faculty members, who shared their experiences and feedback on the course. They appreciated the enthusiasm and curiosity of the students and expressed their satisfaction with the outcome of the course.

The function also featured speeches by some of the students, who expressed their gratitude and appreciation to the department and the faculty members for organizing and conducting the course. They also shared their learning outcomes and benefits of the course and how it helped them to gain new insights and perspectives on plants and their role in the world.

The function concluded with the distribution of certificates to the students by the principal and the head of the Department of Zoology. The function ended with the national anthem and a vote of thanks by a faculty member. The function was followed by refreshments for the participants.
